1. A scholarship/sponsorship will cover funds as indicated in the form of undertaking, paid to the sponsorship holder (known from now on as 'the beneficiary') as well as any payments effected by Government on his/her behalf, in pursuing the approved course of studies/training.
2. The beneficiary will be required:
  - (a) to devote his/her whole time to follow the course of instruction for which the scholarship is awarded, unless permission to undertake other work or to change his/her course is granted by his/her Ministry/Department and unless the course of study is undertaken after office hours or through distance learning;
  - (b) to sit prescribed examinations or approved group of examinations;
  - (c) to satisfy his/her Ministry/Department as to attendance, conduct and progress by reports from the head of the institution or other authority under whom the course of training is being undertaken.

- 3.1 Calculation of the period for which the scholarship holder will be bound to serve should be made as follows:

- Where fees are involved the period for binding should be calculated on the expenses
- Where salary only will be paid the period for binding should be based on the length of the course
- Where expenses involve fees and salary the binding period shall be left at the discretion of the respective Permanent Secretary (for courses of less than one year) and IPS (for courses over one year). It is understood that a reasonable agreement is reached in these cases.

In the case of sponsorships for distance learning or part-time programmes the period of service is to be calculated against approximate cost shown in brackets in the above table.

6. The beneficiary must notify his/her Ministry/Department of the date of termination of his/her course. This declaration is to be supported by documentary evidence from the university or institution which he/she is attending confirming the effective date of termination.

Every candidate who is undertaking a course of studies and who has to abandon his/her course as a result of physical or mental illness is to bring back with him/her to Malta a medical certificate from a qualified medical practitioner indicating why he/she is unable to continue with his/her studies.
